

Addiction & Recovery Resources

Common signs of cannabis dependency include:

- Tolerance to the effects of cannabis, meaning that more cannabis is needed to get the same effect.
- Withdrawal from the effects of cannabis, such as irritability, trouble sleeping, and depressive symptoms.
- Using more cannabis than was intended.
- Spending more time obtaining, using, or recovering from the use of cannabis.
- Giving up important activities in favor of using cannabis.
- Using cannabis even when it is known that it causes problems.

To report an adverse reaction to medical cannabis or for any questions about the program, please contact the Ohio Medical Marijuana Control Program toll-free helpline at:
